For 35 years the Wheat Ridge community has come together in the fall to run or walk a 5 kilometer race and raise money for Wheat Ridge High School. The race, known as the Farmers 5000, is one of the oldest in the Denver area and is held on the third Sunday in September.

This year we are offering the businesses of Wheat Ridge the chance to showcase their fitness and be part of a competition to be named the “Fittest on the Farm.” The Wheat Ridge business who has the most employees register and compete in the Farmers 5000 on September 17 will be awarded a Gold Level Sponsorship for the 2018 race, a $1500 value.

What do you get in return for your support of this event? We will send you fitness tips to share with your employees, such as training tips, nutrition pointers and motivation boosters. If your company participates in the Corporate Challenge you will be given a free 10x10 booth at the finish line festival.

To register for the Corporate Challenge you will need to email Michelle DelPiccolo at Right Start Events, michelle@rightstartevents.com. We will add your company to the drop-down list of participating companies on our race registration website.
